

Cherishing Life

Colossians 2:1-8

January 8, 2017

- A. A right understanding of human life begins with a right understanding of the treasures of wisdom and knowledge found in Christ.
 - a. Jesus created human beings in His own image.
 - b. But sin has distorted our view of life and the value we see in others.
 - c. Thankfully, Jesus came to give us new eyes to see life as it should be seen and lived.
- B. This right understanding of ourselves and others serves to protect us against the threats which abound in this world.
